My birthday is on the 11th of this month. A friend got me this raffle prize. I really want to win this prize. I don't know anything about this raffle. I don't know what to do to register. Is there any way that I can register? Please help me! Welcome to TCF. Even though you don't really have much of a problem in this situation, there is no harm in registering. Once you register you'll get an email with the link to your raffle. This will let you fill in the forms and enter the raffle. I know I have had a little problem in past raffles but never had a problem with the TCF system. I also had to register on the raffle site. Here's a little help in filling in your form.Professor Richard Dawkins has apologised for a tweet suggesting that Christian fundamentalists are "like Nazi doctors" after it was widely shared by other Twitter users. The Oxford professor and atheist activist made the remarks in a tweet which he later deleted. "Christianity is as bad as Nazism. Christianity is an inherently violent creed," he tweeted on Sunday, following in the footsteps of some who suggest Christianity is "totally compatible with democracy." "Violent fundamentalism is totally incompatible with real faith," Dawkins added. "Today, Christian anti-gay hate-preachers like the Westboro Baptist Church are like the Nazi doctors. They're a cancer on the body politic. "The only thing that stops a bad idea from going ahead is good ideas. The only way to ensure a good idea never goes ahead is to kill it before it gets that far." After receiving a slew of disapproving responses to the tweet, Dawkins responded: "OK, no problem, deleted the tweet. Apology accepted." The Westboro Baptist Church, 2d92ce491b
