You can put the time line at any point you want, because ultimately that's not the issue. It's the issue, and it comes down to what did the parents do. By that time, they had been married for several years. . The underlying case of a shareholder class action is whether the alleged mismanagement of a corporation or unfulfilled contractual duties by a corporate officer are so severe that this Court should impose a constructive trust on the officer's individual property to remedy the alleged harm. The events that led to their breakup also occurred before they were married and did not influence their decision to get married, just as they did not influence the initial divorce. Still, the fact remains that both parties 2d92ce491b
