DiskDigger 1.29.37.2963 Crack + License Key Free Download 2020 (suggesting the district court was aware of the matter in question and clearly resolved it). The district court's opinion at the hearing was not ambiguous in its intentions. Rather, the court engaged in extensive discussion of the validity of its denial of the motion for summary judgment, indicating that it was aware of the continuing dispute. The court further stated that it was denying the motion for summary judgment because of the disputed issues of fact and issues of law. Thus, there is no indication that the district court intentionally declined to decide the motion for summary judgment in order to evade the availability of appellate 12 No. 04-2344 review. Accordingly, we conclude that the district court's decision not to decide the motion for summary judgment made it clear that the court was aware of the disputed issues and clearly resolved them. Cf. Barber v. Chi. Univ. Press, 616 F.2d 1266, 1271 (7th Cir. 1980) (holding that the denial of a motion to dismiss is not a final decision where the court states that it would grant the motion but denies it because it decides to reserve judgment until after discovery is completed). Thus, because the district court's opinion at the hearing "made the purpose of the order clear," we conclude that the order was a final decision. Webber, 422 F.3d at 531. 2d92ce491b
