Archive Another year has started and already my sleeves are full of ideas for new products, workshops and other opportunities I would like to explore. We also made it to the start of the semester, which is a great feeling and also means we will be able to start working on the new website I'm going to build in the next few months. In terms of books, I've been working on a lot of new materials, which I will be sharing soon. Meanwhile I have two new publications on The Art of Texture and A Time for Every Purpose. In both you will find a number of new projects that I had the pleasure of being able to show off at local and international shows. Spring is in the air and this year I am planning to start a podcast, so stay tuned for that. For now I'm happy to be able to share one of my new projects for 2018 which is a new series of nature-inspired paintings. This is the time of year when I'm starting to get a lot of questions about upcoming workshops and new products. Keep on eye out for an email soon with all the details.
