It's Here: Metro Northwest's First and Only Community Art Center Edmonds, Washington: The neighborhood feels like the land of enchantment. With views of the sparkling Sound and Tides restaurant landscape, it's the perfect place to show your work and shop for unique wares. This neighborhood art center opened in September 2013 to encourage public dialogue about and to showcase art work. It is the only community art center in Metro Northwest, the region that includes the city of Seattle, the county of King, Snohomish and Pierce counties. It is located at 6200 Lakeview Drive E. in Edmonds and is open seven days a week. The art center is designed to be a catalyst for community discussion of art, and a source of inspiration for art-making. "Inspiration is important," says art center coordinator Dena Opperman. "Our mission is to bridge the gap between artwork and the community of Edmonds." A variety of events and activities promote artistic discussion and engage the community. These include: Art workshops for all ages, ranging from small, experimental art projects to free 2-week workshops for adults and teens A monthly studio tour that takes a creative look at the art being produced in Northwest studios The Community Art Center Gallery opens Monday through Friday from 10am to 6pm and on weekends from noon to 5pm The gallery hosts monthly exhibitions by local artists. The art center also operates a gift shop stocked with gift items donated by local artists, jewelry, handmade goods, cards, books and prints. The gift shop is open Monday through Friday from 10 am to 6 pm, and on weekends from noon to 4 pm. The neighborhood surrounding the art center is one of Edmonds' most popular destinations, with a variety of shops and eateries. "The neighborhood is a hot spot," says Opperman.
