This mod will be working using the latest version of Binding of Isaac RebirthPoems: An English Composer Wants To Move To Ireland WILLIAM PALGRAVE, who is anxious to leave London for the sake of his health, has received the following letter from John Ireland, who was the inventor of a machine known as the 'Hothouse.' It reads as follows:— "MY DEAR PALGRAVE, — I have been working for the last six months, designing, testing and fabricating a new machine, which I will exhibit publicly as soon as I can find a workable mechanical-lubricated engine. During this time I have become acquainted with your machine, and I am desirous of entering into correspondence with you upon the subject. I believe that both you and I are possessed of great invention, and I am willing to help you realise your material desires; and thus it is that I write this letter. I am a London man by birth; but I am anxious to remove to the Irish country, where I can attend to my land operations. I do not wish to go to Ireland for the sake of the tranquil career which land speculation holds out to us here. No man who takes up land enterprise here is allowed any exertion, so he is never repaid for his labour. Ireland has a field-labor system which aims to carry out a scientific policy of production, without stinting the laborer. And so the land is worked with as much skill and toil as if it were a garden-bed. More than half of the population in Ireland consists of laborers and small farmers, and yet Ireland has
